

Steve Sharon

I was born in New Britain, Connecticut and raised in Farmington, Ct. My educational background includes a 1984 B.S. in Biochemistry from Trinity College in Hartford, Ct. and a M.S. in Chemical Engineering from the U. of Virginia in 1986. I worked mainly as a biotechnology/pharmaceutical design and construction engineer.

I am retired and my wife Karen and I live in Healdsburg. I currently volunteer for the ASME (American Society of Mechanical Engineering). I enjoy hiking, wine collecting, family dog care, cycling, my 1969 Chevelle & 1993 Miata, listening to music, vegetable gardening and RV Camping.
